ONLINE LEARNING

Taking courses online provides a flexible and convenient opportunity for you as a student. Our online platforms include Moodle (asynchronous - anytime, anywhere) and Blackboard Collaborate™ (synchronous - real time).

All of our online courses and programs use Moodle as the learning management system, providing students with the flexibility of choosing the time of day or night they wish to participate in their course. Moodle is often used for discussions and document sharing throughout the term.

Graduate courses in Education (MEd) use Moodle and Blackboard Collaborate. Collaborate is real time, meaning you and your peers are present at the same time. Through Collaborate, you will be able to listen and speak with others and through interactive tools, see and share activities. You will access your Collaborate classroom via a link in your Moodle course.

To ensure that you are prepared to be an online learner and to help you prepare for positive and successful online experiences, here are a few tips and suggestions:

- You must be prepared to spend at least 10 hours of study time per week for each course you are taking. Online courses provide flexibility and convenience; however, they do require time, commitment, and attention.
- Time management skills are important in an online course. Check your course daily for new postings, updates, assignment deadlines, quiz dates, etc. In many courses, weekly schedules are provided to help you stay on track.
- You will be expected to participate and share in discussions by responding to questions posted by the instructor as well as responding to postings by others in your class. This is done in an open, constructive, and friendly manner. Posting your thoughts/comments provides you the opportunity to reflect on your answers before posting them to the discussion form.
- You must have access to a computer and the internet on a regular basis. You will need to check your course daily to participate in discussions and to get course materials and updates. Also, keep your StFX email inbox active, as this is your professor's method of communicating with you.
- Information on getting started with various IT-related services is found here: bit.ly/stfx-new
- Moodle and Collaborate help materials/links are posted on your course page in Moodle.
- Ensure you meet the Computer Requirements for Participating in Online Courses found here: bit.ly/computer-requirements-stfx. Note: Chromebooks and some Surface tablets may not be suitable for an online course and, in particular, for online proctoring. If your course has proctored exams (check the syllabus and/or the Moodle page), plan ahead to borrow or use a Windows or Mac computer for exams, and make sure the computer meets the Requirements.
- If you have any questions about Moodle, Collaborate, or technology requirements, please contact CDE Support (cdesupport@stfx.ca).

DIPLOMA IN ADULT EDUCATION

The Diploma in Adult Education is designed for working professionals. It consists of six modules that provide a solid foundation in adult education theory and practice including needs assessment, adult education principles, learning objectives, evaluation, training design, learning styles, and facilitation.

Module 1 Needs Assessment	Dates Sept 14,21,28, 2021 Jan 20, 27, Feb 3, 2022 Online	Examines a model of needs assessment. Needs assessment is the foundation of an effective training program. It enables training professionals to develop long-term and short-term plans, define opportunities and challenges, set priorities, and develop support for training initiatives. Learners will design a comprehensive needs assessment strategy and develop data collection tools (questionnaires and assessment inventories).
Module 2 Learning Objectives	Dates Oct 19, 26, Nov 2, 2021 Feb 24, Mar, 3, 10, 2022 Online	Analyzes the standards required for effective learning and explores current adult education theories. Learning objectives guide all aspects of instructional design. They also inform prospective participants and managers, provide motivation for learners, enable evaluation, and apprise facilitators of any need for training re-design. Learners will develop detailed, measurable standards for cognitive, psychomotor, and affective learning.
Module 3 Evaluation	Dates Nov 30, Dec 7, 14, 2021 Mar 24, 31, Apr 7, 2022 Online	Explores the critical process of evaluation. A sound evaluation strategy enables professionals to design better training. It answers the questions: Did the training program achieve its overall goals? Were the new skills used in the real world? What did they learn? Were they satisfied with the training? Learners will create a training evaluation strategy and related tools to measure impact, transfer, learning, and reaction.
Module 4 Learning Design	Dates Jan 11, 18, 25, 2022 Apr 28, May 5, 12, 2022 Online	Investigates adult learning principles, the unique characteristics of how adults learn, and the effects on course design. The adult experiential model structures the learning process to address these issues. The learning cycle ~ experience, reflection, generalization, application ~ is the core of this experiential model. Learners will design road-maps and then produce a learning plan that incorporates appropriate learning strategies and methods.

Module 5 Facilitating Learning	Dates Feb 22, Mar 1, 8, 2022 June 2, 9, 16, 2022 Online	Examines the role of the facilitator in a learning environment. Facilitating learning is different than making a presentation. The professional facilitator employs platform skills, as well as group-process techniques and discussion-leading skills (questioning, responding, and fielding methods). Learners will plan and deliver a learning session (learning objective, road-map, learning plan) to peer learners, who then will provide feedback on both design and delivery.

GRADUATE STUDIES IN EDUCATION: MASTER OF EDUCATION PROGRAM

Graduate courses in education are offered in the fall, winter, spring, and summer terms primarily online (most online courses are offered synchronously). Students are normally required to complete a residential component during the month of July immediately following acceptance into the program. Because the majority of MEd candidates study part time, the fall, winter, and spring courses are offered in evenings and occasionally on weekends.

For Admission Requirements, please see: <https://www.mystfx.ca/masters-of-education/home>

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

StFX offers a MEd degree with specialization in Educational Leadership and Administration or in Curriculum and Instruction. Students must complete the specified core courses and choose electives appropriate to their interests.

There are three options by which a student may complete the requirements for the MEd: a thesis route, a project route or a course-based route. Students who choose the thesis route must complete 24 credits in graduate education courses and a 12-credit thesis. Students who choose the project route must complete 30 credits in graduate education courses and a 6-credit project. Students following the course-based route are required to complete 36 credits in graduate education courses.

Candidates for the MEd are normally required to take EDUC 534 and EDUC 505 as their first two courses in Antigonish during the summer session immediately after being accepted into the program. EDUC 505 is a prerequisite for EDUC 506, EDUC 507 and EDUC 508. Normally, EDUC 506, EDUC 507, or EDUC 508 is taken after core courses are completed. EDUC 506 or 507 is required in the thesis and project route; EDUC 508 is required in the course-based route.

CONCENTRATIONS

In partnership with various school boards the StFX Faculty of Education offers Master of Education degree concentrations in program areas of identified need. These concentrations provide groups of teachers with opportunities to pursue learning together as they build their capacity to provide leadership for the improvement of education within their school board. For further information, please call the Program Office at (902) 867-3906 or 877-867-3906 (toll free).

PART-TIME STUDY

The majority of Master of Education students are enrolled on a part-time basis. Students normally take one course per term. To accommodate educators who work at school during the day, courses are usually scheduled in the evening or occasionally on weekends. Most part time students can expect to finish a course based program in about 2.5 years or less. Part-time thesis and project students will require a longer time frame and should discuss with their advisor an estimated completion date.

FULL-TIME STUDY

MASTER OF EDUCATION FALL / WINTER / SPRING COURSE SCHEDULE 2021-2022

Registration deadline: August 6, 2021

W = Winter term (January – March)

Registration deadline: December 1, 2021

S = Spring term (April – June)

Registration deadline: March 1, 2021

Online registration is available to all Master of Education students beginning July 20. Registration is on a first-come, first served basis. Enrolment is limited. Please note registration deadlines. Courses that do not have a minimum enrolment will be cancelled.

An administration fee of $100 will be applied to students dropping courses within the two weeks prior to the course start date.

Students enrolled in online or blended courses are required to have a microphone (on-board or external) and speakers. Most courses will have an online component as indicated. Unless otherwise stated, online courses will be held via Collaborate.

Note: Asynchronous e-learning is an interactive, student-centered approach to learning that is not bound by geography or time. Students have the freedom to log on to Moodle at any time, interacting with course content, downloading documents, accessing links, and sending messages to teachers or peers. There is no scheduled weekly class time, although your professor will set regular office hours during which he/she will be available for a real-time conversation via telephone, Skype, or Collaborate. Because there is no set class time to attend each week, students can complete weekly assigned learning tasks and interactions with peers around their own work and personal schedules. In contrast to the real-time conversations in face-to-face classes and in Collaborate, students can spend time reflecting on and refining their contributions to guided prompts from their instructor, identifying connections to readings and other resources and posting these responses to the Moodle discussion forum.

Please check with your professor to confirm all class times and dates during your first class as changes may occur. All times given are in Atlantic Time.
