

Laboratory Instructor
Department of Biology
Contractually Limited Term

Position Description

The Biology Department invites applications for a part time (20 hours per week) Laboratory Instructor. The term of the appointment is from August 12, 2024 to May 9, 2025.

Note: Applicant should be available 1-2 evenings per week (6:00 pm-9:00 pm; Monday, Tuesday, or Thursday) as part of the 20-hour part time schedule.

Minimum qualifications are a B.Sc. in Biology or related field. Experience in instructing undergraduate laboratories is desirable, and higher education or equivalent work experience would be an asset.

The successful candidate will undertake laboratory instruction and associated tasks for the undergraduate course Human Kinetics 161 and 162, Applied Human Anatomy and Physiology I and II, which is required for all BA and BSc students majoring in Human Kinetics. The Department is seeking candidates who are committed to contributing to StFX's priorities of equity, diversity, and inclusion. Demonstrated ability in fostering a climate of inclusion in the classroom and attracting underrepresented groups of students to the program is an asset.

The successful candidate should employ an equitable, diverse, inclusive, and accessible teaching approach to promote a respectful environment for all students, staff, and faculty.

Application Instructions

The review of applications will commence on July 22, 2024 and will continue until the position is filled. To apply, please submit a cover letter (outlining one's suitability for the position), a curriculum vitae, a statement on teaching which outlines teaching effectiveness (max 500 words), and the names and email addresses of three references to:
